On March 11, 2020, the Mayor declared a Public Health Emergency in the District of Columbia. Subsequently, on March 30, 2020, the Mayor issued a Stay at Home Order for the District of Columbia, which went into effect on April 1, 2020. On May 27, 2020, the Mayor issued Mayor's Order 2020-067, which lifted the Stay at Home Order and allowed for the reopening of certain non-essential businesses starting on May 29, 2020. On June 19, 2020, the Mayor issued Mayor's Order 2020-075, which provided guidance for further reopening of businesses during Phase Two. On December 18, 2020 the Mayor issued Mayor's Order 2020-127, which extended the Public Health Emergency and advised all District residents to limit their activities to essential activities and travel. All individuals are still required, if possible, to maintain a distance of at least six (6) feet from persons not in their household. In addition, indoor gatherings of more than ten (10) individuals continue to be prohibited in the District.

As such, in consideration of the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the District of Columbia, and in consideration of the above Mayor's Orders, in lieu of an in-person public hearing on the finding that the District property identified above is no longer required for public purposes and to obtain community input on the proposed disposition of such property, pursuant to D.C. Official Code §10-801, the hearing will be held online, and community input should be submitted by email by April 16, 2021.
