Hello again Valerie!

Thank you for attending one of the DC+XQ information sessions and learning about the opportunity to rethink what is possible for DCPS high schools. We could feel the support and love for DCPS high schools in the room (and virtually)! ICYMI, here's a replay of our virtual session.

DC+XQ is a community-driven initiative. We want to share two ways you can stay involved in making sure that every D.C. high school—across all eight wards—will be a place where students are engaged and inspired to gain the skills and confidence they need for their future success:

Join a Local School Design Team: There is still a chance to join a design team in your community. Design teams are made up of educators, students, families, and community members working together to define their biggest challenges and develop their best and boldest ideas into solutions.

Sign up to stay in the loop with regular communication from us about DC+XQ, upcoming ways to support your local schools, and information about how communities across the nation are rethinking what is possible for their high schools and students.

Thank you for your commitment to DCPS's schools, students, and communities,

Your Friends at DC+XQ
